Position Summary

Under the general supervision of the Program Manager, the Bilingual Trainer / Health Educator's primary responsibility will be facilitating Spanish and English language health education and digital storytelling workshops for Bay Area youth.

About HIFY

HIFY is a multicultural organization whose mission is to improve the health and well-being of under-served young people through innovative youth leadership, popular education and advocacy in pursuit of multi-level social change. We believe in providing complete, accurate health information to young people and supporting them in making their own decisions. Our work is grounded in harm reduction, positive sexuality, youth development and anti-oppression principles.

HIFY does not require specific degrees for its positions. Experience requirements can be met through educational, professional and/or life experience.

Job Duties

- Prepare for and present health workshops in English and Spanish on health topics including substance use, HIV, hepatitis, sexually transmitted infections, safer sex, body image, anti-homophobia, and healthy-relationships
- Prepare and present trainings for adults who provide services to youth on a variety of topics (HIV, Positive Sexuality, Working with LGBTQI Youth, Substance Use, Latinas/os, Health & Youth Development).
- Prepare for and present digital storytelling workshops for San Francisco youth in English and Spanish.
- Take creative initiative in tailoring digital storytelling curricula – including script writing, teaching software, and editing.
- Provide Spanish translation of HIFY materials and products into youth friendly language.
- Conduct outreach for Spanish language services.
- Ensure collection and entry of evaluation data from participants and provide periodic summary reports for grants and evaluation.
- Participate in relevant community collaborations and respond to requests for information from community members and peers.
- Participate in HIFY projects related to agency initiatives and mission.
- Contribute written information and research to printed materials.
- Other duties as necessary.

Qualifications

Candidate must:

- Be fully bilingual in English and Spanish, with excellent oral and written skills.
- Have at least one year verifiable experience working with youth media, health, youth development, and/or related fields.
- Have at least 2 years verifiable experience facilitating workshops, trainings, and/or community meetings.
- Be familiar with Mac Operating systems and Microsoft Office programs.
- Embrace HIFY's mission, health education approach and the services we provide.
- Be able to work in a small, close-knit team environment as well as independently.
- Feel comfortable and excited about working with diverse groups of youth and adults.
